

Princess Mizuki's Frozen Party!

by Mizuki Goto

It was early Saturday morning, and Princess Mizuki was already awake.

She was so excited for her party in Kyoto, with her friends Princess Tomomi, and Prince Tom.

Princess Mizuki was wearing a beautiful shiny yellow dress, and a gold tiara on her head.

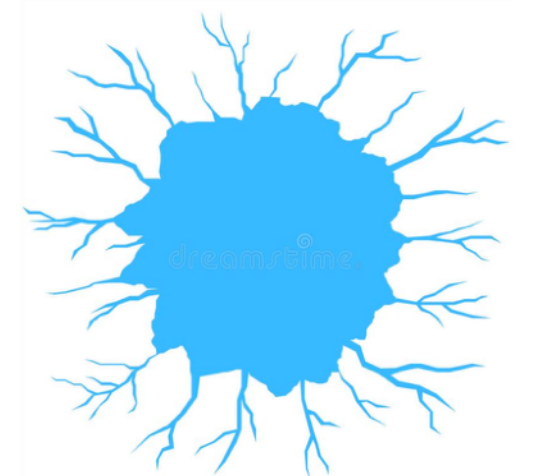

It was winter so it was very cold outside, Princess Mizuki decided they would eat lunch first, they ate popcorn, strawberries, and cake.

After lunch they were singing and dancing until it was time to go ice skating. They put on their ice skates, and started skating on the ice.

They were having so much fun skating, and laughing - but then Prince Tom fell through the ice!

"Oh no!" yelled Mizuki and Tomomi.

It was almost Spring, so the ice was starting to melt.

Mizuki and Tomomi found a rope and tried to pull Tom out of the cold water, but the ice broke and Mizuki fell in too.

"Oh no!" yelled Tomomi.

"I can help!" said a voice, it was Princess Cinderella!

Tomomi tied the rope to Cinderella's carriage, and they pulled Mizuki and Tom out of the water.

"Thank you Cinderella!" said Mizuki, Tomomi, and Tom.
