

The crane was moving because it was making a building.

Kevin is angry because everyone is running.

I was running because there was a bee chasing me.

I left the jungle because there was too many mosquitos.

Tomomi was laughing because the kids were being silly.

I like jam because it is yummy.

I am happy because I caught a fish at the lake.

I am sad because I didn't catch a fish at the lake.

I am super happy because I am going to the aquarium.
